

NONTRADITIONAL FEMALE STUDENTS: A FEMINIST RESEARCH IN ACADEMIA

This research is for people who identify as women and who are studying in an undergraduate program (microprogram, certificate or baccalaureate)

You are a parent student of a minor, either with the full or shared custody?

You care for someone who isn't your partner?

You have a full-time or a part-time job

You have 25 or older?

If you say yes to one of this question, we need you!

Your participation include:

- (1) Taking part in an individual life-story interview lasting from 1h to 1h30 in which you will be required to tell your school and life path among others.
- (2) Taking part in two focus group of approximately 1h30 each which will bring together four female learners enrolled in an undergraduate program. During this focus group, you will be required to react to preliminary analysis presented by the researcher, and you may precise elements.

If you are interested in participating to the research or need more informations on it or on me, you can join me by email.

Claire.Moreau3@USherbrooke.ca

I am looking forward to chat with you!

Claire (she) Moreau,
Assistant Professor, Department of Pedagogy, Faculty of Education
University of Sherbrooke

Terms:

Data collection between March and December 2023

Duration of the individual interview : 1h to 1h30

Duration of each focus group :1h30

Confidentiality assured

Support measures as needed

Monetary compensation